MAN FALLS UNDER A TRAIN

Frank Harper May Lose His Arm—Young Man Arrested
On Grave Charge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., July 20.—Philip Howard, a young white man, was committed to the Norfolk county jail this afternoon, pending an examination on a warrant charging him with attempting criminal assault on Mrs. Theresa Hunt.

Howard is a brother of John Howard, who is now on bail pending an examination before a jury in the Norfolk county Circuit Court on a like charge.

Benjamin Shepard and Miss Fay Adams, of Portsmouth, returned home today husband and wife. Because of parental objections as to their youth, they went to Elizabeth City, N. C., secretly and were married there by Rev. T. B. Tyler, of the Episcopal Church. The petitions of the pretty bride secured pardons from all of the parents to-day, and there was a cordial welcome afterwards.

Slipped Under Train.
Frank Harper, giving his home as Nashville, Tenn., in attempting to alight from an incoming train at Union's Point last evening, slipped and fell, the wheels of the train passing over and crushing his arm. Harper is now at the Sarah Lelch Hospital, in this city. He is doing well, but may lose his arm.

Judge John Taggart Blodgett, of Providence, Rhode Island, who is on his way to the Jamestown Exposition, arrived here today to confer with the officials of the exposition company and make an inspection of the site at Sewall's Point.

Dewell Committed Suicide.
John N. Dewell, a well-to-do retired merchant, seventy years of age, shot himself this morning and died. Mr. Dewell was formerly a retail grocer at No. 84 Cumberland Street, and had acquired a fortune of $50,000 when he sold the business a few years ago.

He arose early this morning, and taking a quilt spread it on the back yard and lay down on it to finish his rest and escape the heat of the house. When Mrs. Dewell started to breakfast there was the report of a pistol, and going to the yard she found that her husband had shot himself in the temple and was unconscious. He died in four hours. His wife was formerly Miss Laura V. Cowper, of Portsmouth.
The friends ascribe the suicide to the effects of heat and to the worry which he has had over a large amount of farming property at Paducah, Ky., over which there has been a recent litigation.

BETWEEN TWO STORMS.

Winchester Has An Exciting
Time—A Lady's Bravery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, Va., July 20.—For several hours last evening Winchester was between two of the severest electrical storms that have visited this section in recent years.

One storm from the northwest and the other from the southeast almost met here, but passed over with little rainfall. Great damage was done to corn and other growing crops, a number of houses were unroofed, big trees were left down and gardens suffered. A valuable blooded horse belonging to R.
Powell Page, at Boyce, was killed by lightning.

Mrs. Simon Sykes, of Clarke county, yesterday saved two little children from possible death by a huge copperhead snake, which was crawling into the bed in which the children were lying. As the reptile turned on Mrs. Sykes she seized a heavy club and killed it.
Just as Harry E. Guyer, a grocery-man, closed his store last night, an unknown person on the opposite side of the street, fired a pistol at him. It is supposed. The bullet smashed a big plate glass. The culprit escaped before the police were notified.

GRIDIRON CLUB.

Outing of Prominent Danville People.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, Va., July 20.—The annual picnic and outing of the Gridiron Club was held to-day at Moore's Springs, just outside the corporation limits, and a most enjoyable time was spent. The outing was a grand success, and attended by over a hundred prominent citizens, including nearly all of the city and Federal officers. City Sergeant P.
H. Bollesau and Clerk of the Corporation Court John R. Cook composed the committee having the entertainment. Including a Dozen of chickens, several fine steaks and lamb were killed for the occasion and a Brunswick stew was served in large quantities.

Among those who attended the outing were Judge A. M. Allen, of the Corporation Court, Mayor Harry Wooding, Postmaster C. P. Barkdale, City Treas-

The committee appointed in the recent meeting of the Interstate Tobacco Growers' Association for the purpose of ascertaining the best method for the proposed independent tobacco factory to be started in Danville, met this morning in the room of the Commercial Association. The plans met with the approval of many of the leading citizens here, and a committee was appointed to decide the amount of capital to be invested and recommend the same to the managers. This committee will report in course of thirty days.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE WEDDED AT FRANKLIN

Daughter of Dr. J. F. Bryant Becomes a Bride—Miss, Pre-tlow Marries.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRANKLIN, Va., July 20.—A beautiful marriage was solemnized in the Methodist Church here Tuesday evening at nine o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Gabrielle (Kitty) Bryant and Mr. W. O. Bristol. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Parker, assisted by Rev. T. G. Pullen. The bride is the daughter of Dr. J. F. Bryant, a prominent physician of this place, who has for many years been prominent in the political, social and business life of this section.

The church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers. The bride-smen were lighted by more than a hundred candles, in addition to the usual electric lights in the church.
The ushers were Colonel O. C. Vaughan, Jr., and Messrs J. F. Bryant, Jr., Joe H.
Norfleet and Grover Stephenson. The groomsmen were Messrs. A. W. Jones, Jr., L. E. Watkins, B. F. Holt, A. L. Garner, Jr., P. Ryland Camp, Robert G.
Camp and John Camp, of this place. The bridesmaids were Misses Azile Poole, of South Carolina, Lulu D. Barham, of Newtown, Va., and Rebecca A. Motley, of Gardner, Va. The bridesmaid, Miss Jackson, of this place, carried a white parasol and a bouquet of white lilies.

The bride wore white tulle and mousseline and carried white lilies. The maid of honor was Miss May Camp, attired in a suit of blue silk. The matron of honor was Mrs. J. F. Bryant, Jr., in white crepe de chine, carrying white roses. The best man was Mr. J. A.
Bristol, brother of the groom. The groomsmen were Messrs. Kent Camp, Harry Jackson, Phil Camp and Cora Vaughan, all of this place. Little Miss Antoinette Camp was flower girl, and Master Andrew Bryant was ring-bearer.

Mrs. R. J. Camp sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told," preceding the ceremony and after, during and succeeding the ceremony, Miss Willie Gay at the organ, and Miss Sarah Vaughan and Master Vaughan Camp with violins, discoursed very sweet music.
The bride wore white chiffon over tartane with duchesse lace, and was given away by her father, Dr. Bryant.
The couple received over a hundred handsome bridal presents. A reception was given the couple and attendants at the home of Dr. Bryant on Friday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Bristol left over S. A.
L. train for a tour of the North, and will be at home at Franklin Hotel after August 1st.
Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, Miss Maggie E. Pretlow, of this place, was united in marriage to Mr. W. T.
Woodley, of Chowan county, North Carolina. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. F. A. Pettey, the rector of the Episcopal Church, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anne E. Pretlow. In this mother, Mrs. Anne E. Pretlow, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and Mr.
Wallace Winborne, of North Carolina, acted as best man. The bride is the daughter of the late Joshua Pretlow, and the niece of the late J. Denson Pretlow, a very prominent citizen of this county, who formerly represented it in the legislature.

Jarman—Jameson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 20.— Mr. Robert H. Jarman, of this city, and Miss Mary Louise Jameson, daughter of Mr.
Alvin T. Jameson, were married at 9:30 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride, on the corner of Eleventh Street, the ceremony being performed by the Rev.
Harry B. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. There were no attendants.

TOM WATSON NOW OWNS MOUNTAIN TOP

The Georgian Has Purchased This Well-Known Summer
Resort.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 20.— Tom Watson, of Georgia, has invested thirty thousand dollars in the purchase of the famous "Mountain Top" resort, located on the Blue Ridge Mountain, one-half mile west of Afton on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and consists of about 300 acres, partly in Albemarle, Nelson and Augusta counties. There are seven nice cottages on the grounds, and some twenty odd springs, with a variety of wild fruit.

There is much of historic interest about "Mountain Top." In an old stone tavern, which was built on the western slope of the mountain in 1770, there assembled in 1776 the body of commissioners appointed to locate the State university. With Jefferson and Madison at their head, the commissioners settled on the site, outlined a plan for its construction, the elements to be taught, the number of professors and a legislative bill for organizing and managing the institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson took possession of their new Virginia home to-day, and expressed themselves as being charmed with their new abode. The grounds are delightfully laid out and charmingly attractive. The views from the highest point on this tract are perhaps the grandest in Virginia. While Mr. Watson did not give up his home in Georgia, it is understood that he will spend four or five months of each year at "Mountain Top."

POLITICS LIVELY IN SOUTHWEST

Ex-Governor Tyler a Strong Advocate of Willard for Governor.

DR. M'BRIDE TO RESIGN

The Report Unconfirmed, But is Generally Believed to Be True.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent.)
BART LADFORD, Va., July 20.—Ex-Governor Tyler is not taking an active part in the political campaign generally, but he is an earnest advocate of the nomination of Captain Willard to the governorship. Governor Tyler introduced Mr. Willard when the latter spoke here last week, and his introduction had an excellent effect upon the voters.
"I should not be in the least surprised to see Willard nominated," said Governor Tyler to-day. "The speech he made here, taken all in all, was one of the most effective I have ever heard anywhere from anybody. It made him many friends."

The Governor is not taking any part in the senatorial contest or the contest over other offices than the governorship. But he is exerting his influence to bring out a large vote for Mr. Willard. He has been an admirer of the Lieutenant-Governor for years. Mr. Willard was an officer on the Governor's staff during Governor Tyler's term.

The Governor has not heretofore taken any part in political life since his retirement from the gubernatorial office. His extensive business interests have engrossed his attention, and he has his family.

For An Orphanage.
Just now Governor Tyler is engaged in the work of establishing the Virginia synodical orphanage at Lynchburg. He is chairman of the committee to raise funds for the institution. This work engrosses a great deal of his time, and he is meeting with remarkable success. Two years ago a tract of 325 acres of land, near Lynchburg, was purchased. The committee did not have a dollar with which to pay for it, but the purchase price, $25,000, has been paid, and twenty-seven orphans are now being cared for in buildings on the property when it was purchased.

Within the past few days Governor Tyler has received several checks of considerable size from personal friends who know the needs of the orphanage. The plans for the orphanage include extensive buildings and, of a consequence, the expenditure of a large sum of money.
Governor Tyler's success thus far indicates that in selecting him as the main force in raising funds needed the synod acted wisely.

Perhaps it never occurred to the average reader of The Times-Dispatch to speculate as to where all the orphans came from.
Public works, such as railroads, street railways and coal mines furnish the great mass of orphans who have to be cared for," said Governor Tyler. "The railroads make the most, but here in the Southwest the coal mines cause the loss of many fathers. In nearly every case the death of a coal miner means that a family is left in destitute circumstances and a mother is to have a hard struggle to keep her little children and herself from starvation. The orphanage is for the purpose of taking care of children thus thrown upon charity. It is a great work, which appeals to me most deeply. Our orphanage is not a sectarian institution.
It is to be conducted on broad lines. The essential thing in order to insure a child being cared for, in our asylum is that he be deserving of it."

The Governor is absolutely confident that the money needed to establish the orphanage on a foundation as firm as is desired will be forthcoming.

Normal School.
As I am not confining this letter to political topics, it is not out of place to mention that Radford is expecting to have located here a State normal school for the training of female teachers. I was told to-day by a man who trusted his source of information, that the committee appointed by the General Assembly to locate the school, which is now in session, is recommending a site for the location of an additional institution, will recommend that three be established instead of one.

It is further asserted that the committee will recommend that one of these be located at Radford, on the Valley, and one in Tidewater. Virginia.
This is the latest story. I have no means of confirming it.

McBride to Resign.

Here is another story which I have heard recently. This one is to the effect that Dr. McBride, president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, has tendered his resignation. It is said he has made up his mind to accept the presidency of the Sweetbrier Institute, in Nelson county. The report, which is more or less general in this section, has it that Dr.
McBride's resignation is in the hands of the board of visitors, and will take effect on the first day of September, 1905.
This report is not confirmed. It is believed to be true. The resignation of Dr.
McBride will be a blow to the Polytechnic Institute. In the past he has been there the one who has made the institute one of the foremost of its kind in the United States. But while the magnitude of the work done by Dr. McBride can hardly be exaggerated, the institution has reached a size where its growth cannot be easily hindered, nor its usefulness impaired. And for this, thanks and honor are due Dr. McBride.

Pulaski for Swanson.

But back to politics again. It is probable that Mr. Swanson will carry Pulaski, though the friends of Mr. Willard claim the drift of sentiment is towards their candidate. Judge Mann has considerable strength in Pulaski. He is growing. His friends hope to have him make one or two speeches in the country soon after which, they predict, there will be manifested a substantial growth in Mann sentiment. The politicians tell me there is a large vote in Pulaski county which is not "settled." Mr. Swanson, who, apparently, understands the best chance of carrying the county, has a strength which does not vary. But there is a large class of voters who may vote for either Judge Mann or Mr. Willard, but who will not support Mr. Swanson in any case. The result in the county may be decided by the way in which this vote, that is now neutral, may go. I wonder whether this description of conditions in Pulaski would not fit conditions in the State.

The supporters of Senator Martin claim that he will carry Pulaski. It is not improbable.

STATE FIREMEN.

Their Tournament Ends With An Excellent Programme.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINSTON-SALEM, Va., July 20.—The State Firemen's Tournament closed this afternoon. To-day's programme was one of the most interesting of the week.
Asheville and Raleigh were the only contestants in the hook and ladder race.
Raleigh won her time being 45 seconds.
There were six entries in the hand reel race, but only five ran. Salem won first money, her record being 27.25 seconds. Salem also won first prize in the grab reel race, and also lowered the State record, her time being 18.45.

Winston-Salem turned the tables on Charlotte by winning 10:30's ball game.
Charlotte routed the innings to decide the contest. The score was 8 to 3. Up to the ninth inning it looked like victory was going to the visitors.

GEORGIA SURVIVORS.

the Battlefield.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MANASSAS, Va., July 20.—The survivors of the Battle of Manassas, who were visiting Manassas for the purpose of placing markers upon the Bull Run battlefield, arrived over the Southern Railroad this afternoon.
A reception was tendered the visitors to-night at the courthouse lawn by the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C. Short and appropriate addresses were delivered by Colonel Edmund Berkeley, Mr. Worth, of Georgia, and Mr. Robert A. Hutchison.
The veterans will go to the battlefield to-morrow.

LIGHTNING KILLS LADY ON PORCH, SOUTH BOSTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, Va., July 20.—Mrs.
Fletcher Clark, aged forty-five years, residing on the courthouse lawn, was killed by lightning on Sunday night.
She was sitting on her porch when this afternoon. She was sitting on her eighteen-year-old daughter, Miss Elsie Tuck, is ill with typhoid fever, but was not disturbed. The house was damaged, but not burned.

Burglars Put to Rout.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SOUTH BOSTON, Va., July 20.—The members of the house party and their hostess at "Hill Brook Farm" had a novel experience Tuesday evening. About midnight some of the party ladies, occupying an upstairs room, heard two men beneath their window talking and planning to enter the house. Thinking that the men were out of town they thought it "dead easy" but they did not think so a few moments later, when the brave hostess of young lady, and a young man armed themselves with revolvers and shotguns and pursued the would-be intruders, who had already been put to flight by two faithful dogs. The party pursued the men some distance down the road, but they "gave them the slip" and the heroic party returned to the house.

Two Agents Fined

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAEZEWELL, Va., July 20.—Two agents of the Wrought Iron Range Co., of St. Louis, were arrested and fined $100 each here to-day for peddling stoves in this county. Both of the men will take their case to the Circuit Court, but they claim that the law does not apply to them, and that the act is in violation of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

BOARD OF VISITORS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Meet to Select Professors, But Action Not Made Known.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 20.—The annual meeting of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, called for this afternoon failed to materialize because of the lack of a quorum. Telegrams were sent for some of the absentees, and at 10 o'clock to-night, the board finally got down to business, with the following members present: Charles P. Jones, of Monterey; Benjamin F. Buchanan, of Fairfax; Benjamin F. Buchanan, of Marion; Eppa Hunton, of Richmond, and Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville. At midnight was announced that the body would be in session until far in the morning, and that no proceedings would be given out until adjournment.

The general business before the board is the election of four professors, two in the medical school to fill the chairs vacated by Dean William G. Christian and Dr. Augustus H. Buckmaster, and two in the academic department, a professor of secondary education, in connection with the Curry Memorial School, and a professor of philosophy.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 20.—To arouse the public spirit of election officers to the point of giving their service gratis is to be attempted at to-morrow night's meeting of the Democratic City Central Committee. If such patriots cannot be secured the committee will make an

BANKRUPTCY.

Mrs. N. C. Wright & Co., a well known merchandise firm in Surry county, which has long dealt with wholesale houses here, have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to John D. Watkins, of this city, and J. G. Bohannon, of Surry Courthouse, as trustees. The liabilities are about $12,500, while the assets, including several places of real estate, stock and about $12,000 book accounts, are stated to be $12,000. The assignment was made because of inability to make collections necessary to meet maturing and matured obligations, and Mr. Watkins, the Petersburg trustee, expresses the opinion that with judicious management the creditors will be paid nearly, if not quite in full.
Merchants in Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Norfolk, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia are creditors. The deed of assignment, which has been filed in the office of the clerk of Surry county, is made pro-rata and absolutely without priority or preference. The trustees are permitted to continue the business for a period not exceeding six months.

The criminal docket for the July term was called before Judge J. M. Mullen in the Petersburg Court this morning, and a number of negroes were tried for different varieties of theft, among whom was Charles Cox, otherwise known as "Bly Fox," whose case was continuing from the last term. Cox was sent to the penitentiary for two years for cashing at S. S.
Elliot's furniture store a thirty-year-old check belonging to another negro, Aaron Farham, whom Cox claimed to be when he succeeded in paying four dollars on Farham's account and receiving the check in cash for the check, which was drawn by the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company. The civil docket of the court will be called this morning.

SCHOOL PHYSICIAN.

physician to the Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute, an office made vacant by the death of Dr. R. D. McIlwaine, a meeting of the Board of Visitors of the institution, to be held Tuesday, July 25th, has been called by the secretary, Mr. John D. Watkins.
October 25th, 26th and 27th have been designated by Dr. William E. Harwood, grand commander of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, as the days for holding the annual reunion of the Grand Camp, which will meet in this city. The Oaks Warehouse Company, incorporated to deal in tobacco, has been organized here with W. L. Venable, president, Joseph E. Venable, vice-president, and E. S. Collier, secretary and treasurer. The company owns the large and well known Oaks warehouse property on the river, which has been owned and managed by T. J. Ellis, a well known tobacco man of this city.

ascertained here to-day, on good authority, that the impending report of the Southern Railway's business for the fiscal year remarkable annual reports ever made has been the best the system has ever enjoyed, and the increase in revenues is said to make a wonderful showing.

The report is to be issued in the next few days.
